End of Sale Statement

June 2020

Barrett Communications is announcing the end of sale of the commercial version Clover 2000 external modem with USB interface & internet & fax gateway software (Part#: BC202900). The commercial version of the modem is replaced by the Nato Green version Part#: 2090-04-09 with the following rationale and way forward.

The discontinuation of the commercial version Clover 2000 external modem with USB interface & internet & fax gateway software (Part#: BC202900) is due to the rationalisation of the Clover modem product lines. The Nato Green version Part#: 2090-04-09, provides exactly the same performance and form factor and will allow Barrett to maintain pricing of the product in line with customer expectations
